A Peek at the Week

We are learning the consonants "Zz" and "Qq" and the fact that Q is followed by u. We will be starting reading circles in a few days. Please read with your child when he/she brings home a book (a blend book or reader). Sign the back of the book and write down the pages read. Please continue to work on blend ladders. We will be learning the One Vowel Rule. We will be learning about a story and how to make a title. We will be introducing the 70 and 80 family and counting by tens. We will add 0 to a number, make the One Addition Family (1+0, 0+1), and introduce the Two Addition Family. We will be counting from 1-100.

Reminders

Remember to send a jacket with your child since the days are cooler.

Please continue to review blend ladders with your child. In reading assignments, have your child read only what has been assigned or some previous pages. Do not have him/her read ahead.

Looking Ahead
